Allowable Subject Matter

This communication is in response to applicant's Amendment which filed April 11, 2006 in the application of Tsuji et al. for a "Remote control system" filed September 9, 2003.

The amendment has been entered and made of record.

Claims 1-12 are allowed.

Referring to claim 1 and 3, the following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fail to suggest limitations that "said enciphering means enciphers said specific key code through the use of a default key code stored in said transmitter and said receiver".

Referring to claim 5 and 9, the following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fail to suggest limitations that "said enciphering means changing one of said plurality of common key codes to a registration key code set in advance to change the contents of said enciphering table and enciphering said specific key code through the use of the changed enciphering table including said registration key code".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
